A Dedication

A Scholar . . . a woman who has dedicated her life to seeking the truth . . .

An Educator . . . one who has shown the way, both by example and by instruction, to better understanding of life through an educated mind . . .

A Dedicated Woman . . . one who has diligently applied time, energy, and talent in the unselfish effort of lighting young minds with scientific truth . . .

A Friend . . . one who has given wise counsel and an open heart to all who come and sincerely seek it . . .

A Dedication to MRS. MARTHA T. GARDNER, a humble expression of appreciation to a wonderful person who through these many phases of her personality has given the students of New Bern High School many precious gifts that were born in foresight and nurtured in love.

Respectfully,
The BRUIN Staff

Foreword

"HAIL RED AND BLACK"

Charles Harper

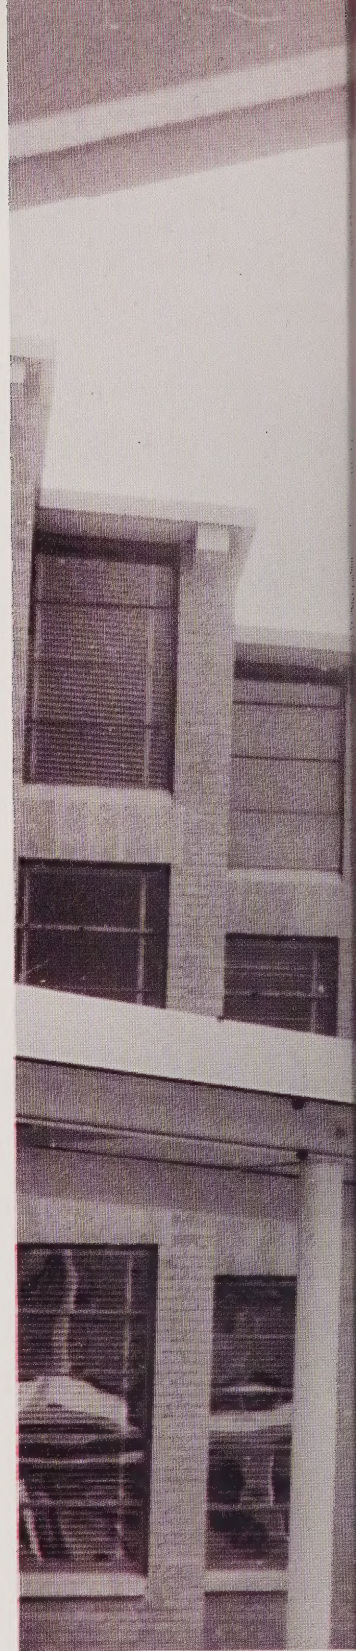

David L. Walters

Hail to thee, O New Bern High School, and her colors too,
We'll forevermore be loyal for we're proud of you,
You're the brightest star of all, clear your radiance shines,
New Bern High School, how we love thee, all our praise be thine.

These are the words; the words that represent five buildings, 1,000 students, and the hopes, visions, and dreams of each young person attending New Bern High School. To the student who has just arrived, these words are just a song; but to the student who must soon depart, they are more than a song; they are memories, emotions, intangibles which have shaped the student's ideas and ideals.

The student who is leaving New Bern High School will often call to his mind the warm and familiar memory of the touchdown, the screaming crowd, and then the hush that fell. He will remember with thoughts of joy and sadness the times in years gone by when his fellow classmates sang loud and clear to the silent world, "Hail to thee, O New Bern High School." His heart will swell as those noble hearts did. Yes, those were and are noble hearts, for only the noble can sing out the realization of their loyalty and love.

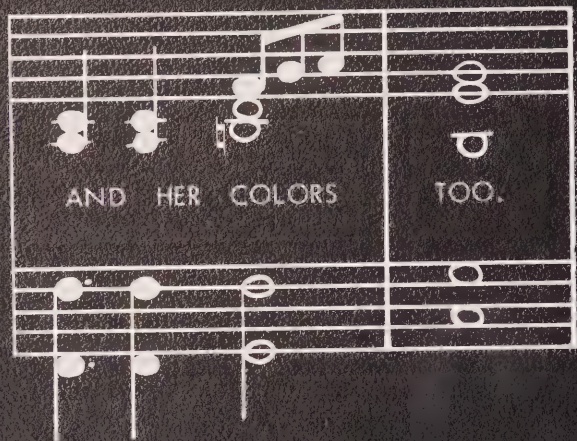

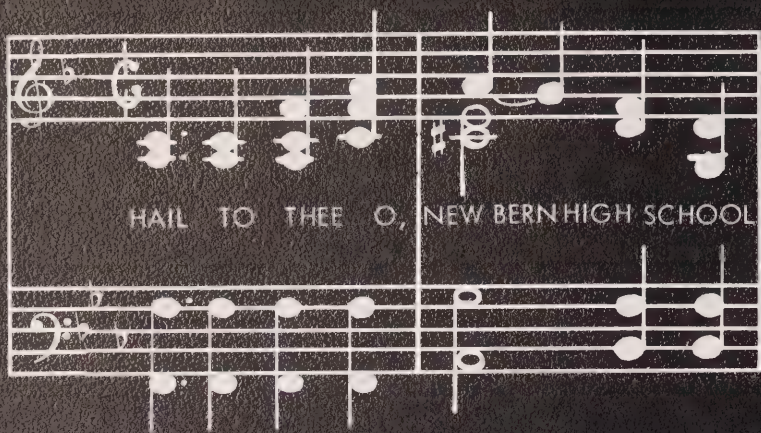

So with humble hearts, love and hope, the Bruin Staff has set forth as the theme of the 1961 Bruin the New Bern High School song. May this song come singing home to the heart of every student, and may it throughout time inspire them to live as nobly as they sang.

Course of Study—Sports

Freshman English

Miss Anderson's freshman English class works hard to obtain a good foundation in English which will assist them throughout their lives.

Mrs. Williford leads her freshman English class in a review of the parts of speech.

Sophomore English

Interested? Studious? Mrs. Kluttz's English II class begins a review for exams.

Mrs. Whitley looks on as Janet Olds ponders over a difficult English test.

Carolyn Ross must be taking a test in Miss Greene's English II class!

Junior English

In her junior English class, Mrs. Kluttz explains a difficult point to Martha Thompson.

Mrs. Pace's junior English class industriously studies for a big test on pronouns.

Senior & Business English

Miss Hodges checks through the book review section to find interesting reading to suggest to her senior English classes.

Belva Skarren and Sally Nelson studiously do research on their term papers.

Miss Williams watches her Business English class prepare to take a test on the fundamentals of a good business letter.

Mrs. Rhodes helps Billy Pierce with a difficult translation.

Latin

These students seem amused by the scrolls they are reading.

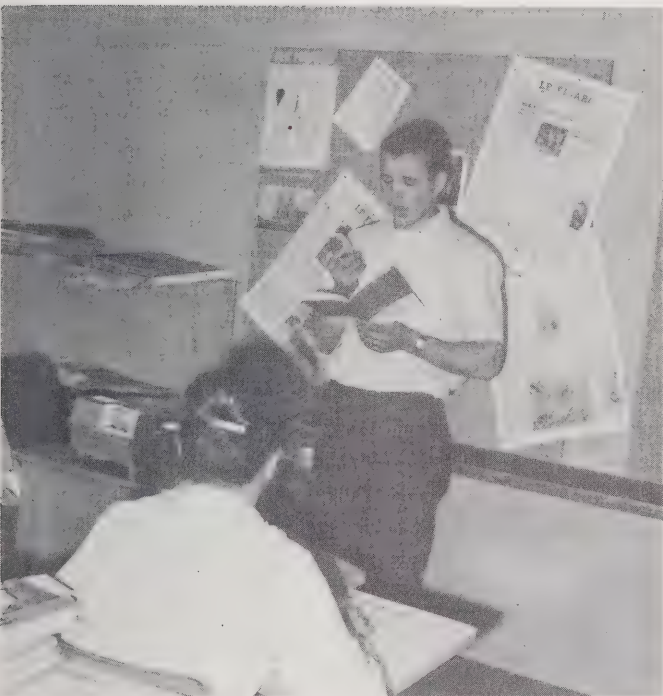

Mrs. Rhodes tells her Latin II class some interesting facts about the calendar used by the ancient Romans.

Mrs. Smith's French I class does some last minute studying before taking a vocabulary test.

Winston Dixon uses a tape recorder to improve his pronunciation.

French

Mrs. Smith explains the subjunctive and indicative moods to her French II class.

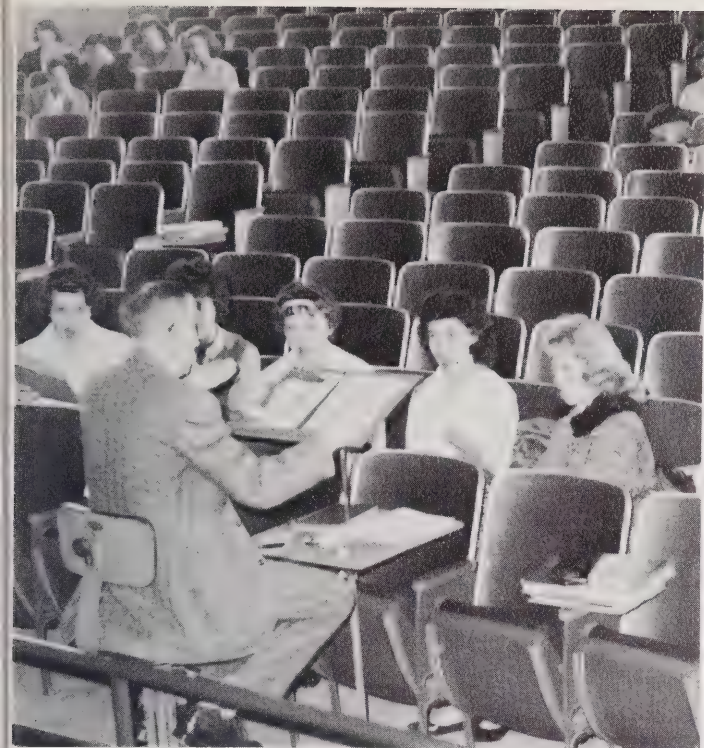

Mrs. Hunnings helps Harry Kahn do his Spanish class work.

Spanish

Mrs. Hunnings' second period Spanish I class works hard as the end of the period draws near.

Mr. Donald Smith helps the soprano section of the Girls' Glee Club.

Music

Barbara Bowen, Radford Reel, Marthanette Pate, Jean Thorne, and Mildred Gwaltney make up the flute section of the band.

The choir practices zealously in order to be ready for their Spring Concert.

Social Studies

Mrs. Whitley's world history class busily reviews for exams.

Tull Jenkins points out danger spots on our Coast-line on a map of the United States for the geography class.

Mrs. Smallwood looks on as juniors read of our country's history.

Mrs. Hunnings dictates a quiz to her United States history class.

These students gain a knowledge of the problems of today's world in their problems of democracy class.

Miss Williams' economics class learns how our nation's economy is kept on an even keel.

Miss Williams answers Carlton Lamb's question in her economics class.

Social Studies

Coach Kluttz's sociology class listens to an interesting report being presented by one of their classmates.

Mrs. Hunnings' psychology class considers all of the possibilities of a question before answering it.

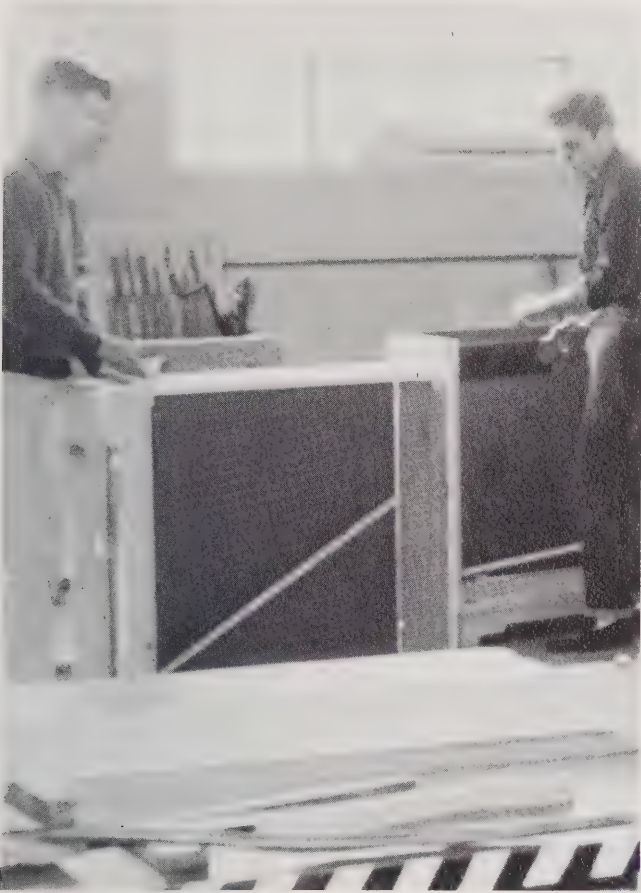

Teresa Mann leads her sociology class in a discussion.

Psychology students feverishly copy questions which they must answer for home work.

Mechanical Drawing - Industrial Arts

Mack Caton and Jiggs Carter work hard to complete their industrial arts project.

The members of the industrial arts classes find that they must put their knowledge to practical use.

Kirven Mills, Joe Slater, and Kermit James work industriously on a design in mechanical drawing.

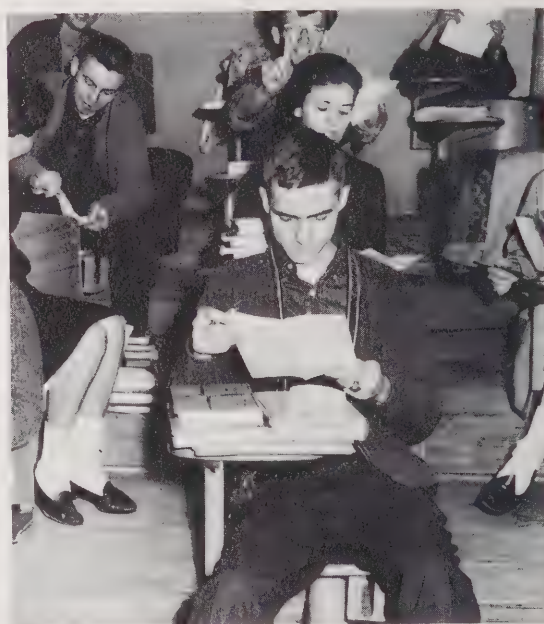

Jerry Oliver demonstrates the principle of the gyroscope to his physics class.

Jimmy Paul and Tommy Heritage are amused with a problem in Mr. Jimmy Smith's physics class.

Mr. Sutherland demonstrates the combustible properties of red phosphorous to Shirley Wheeler, James Wiley, Dale Walker, and Glenn Dunn.

Doug Ipock seems to be quietly contemplating his returned chemistry quiz.

Scientists

Mrs. Gardner supervises as David Woodruff and Judy Darnell study specimens under the microscope.

Annette Gause and Betty Wheeler look on eagerly as Mrs. Gardner explains the dissection of a crayfish.

Harriet Divoki and Doris Pipkin present a comparison between the animal cell and the plant cell in their biology class.

Mrs. Fulcher explains basic table manners to her first year home economics class.

Harriet Divoky demonstrates child care in her second year home economics class.

Ginger Hughey and Patsy Ward examine a specimen under the bioscope in their general science class.

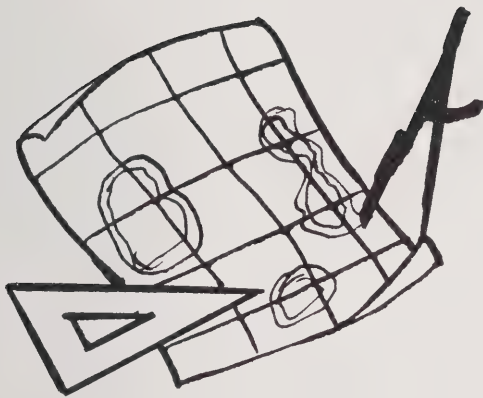

Mrs. Sawyer explains a difficult assignment to Barbara Little while the general science class studies.

Problems in Math . . .

Provide a basis for a modern future.

Mrs. Bynum explains to Rose Gooch the method of proving a theorem in plane geometry.

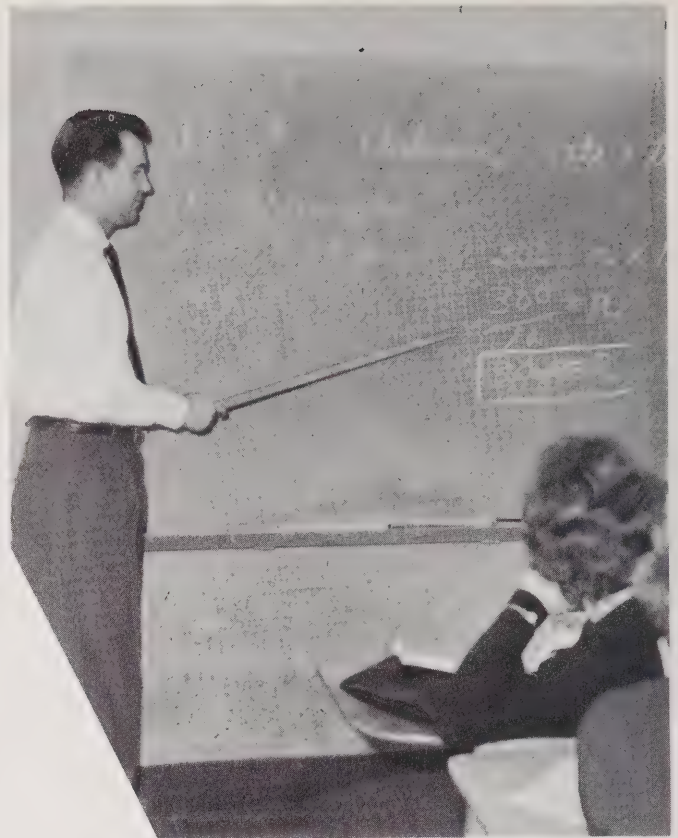

Mr. Smith observes as his solid geometry class studies polyhedrons.

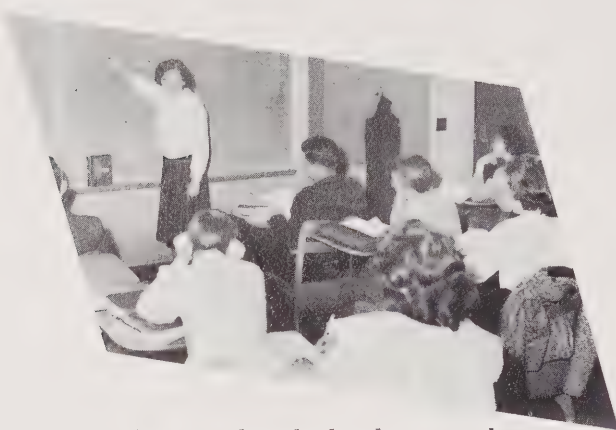

Mrs. Munn grades Algebra I papers while the class studies.

Coach Taylor explains a difficult problem in algebra to his freshman class.

This general math class listens raptly as Mrs. Finch explains a problem.

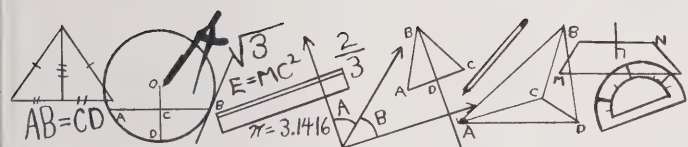

Celia Parsons shows this Algebra II class her method of solving the problem.

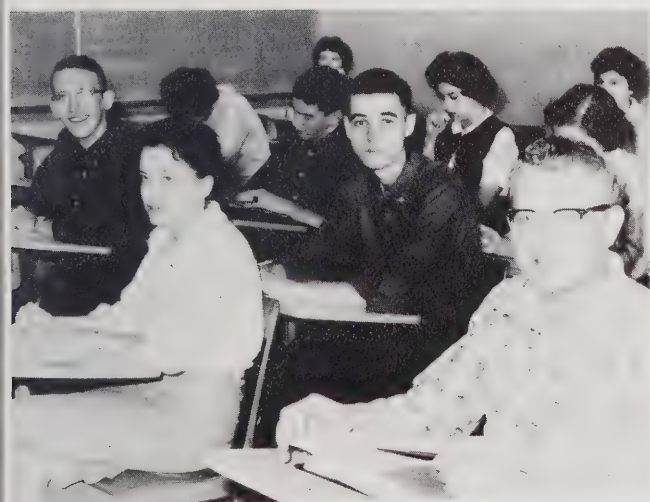

Charles Hardison makes sure that he is working a problem correctly by consulting Mrs. Bynum.

Mr. Smith waits for these boys to finish working a motion problem.

This Algebra III class appears to be engaged in a test!

Health and Physical Education

Lynn Watson, Ellen Lansche, Sybil Goodwin, Sally King, and Barbara Wetherington hurriedly study for a health test.

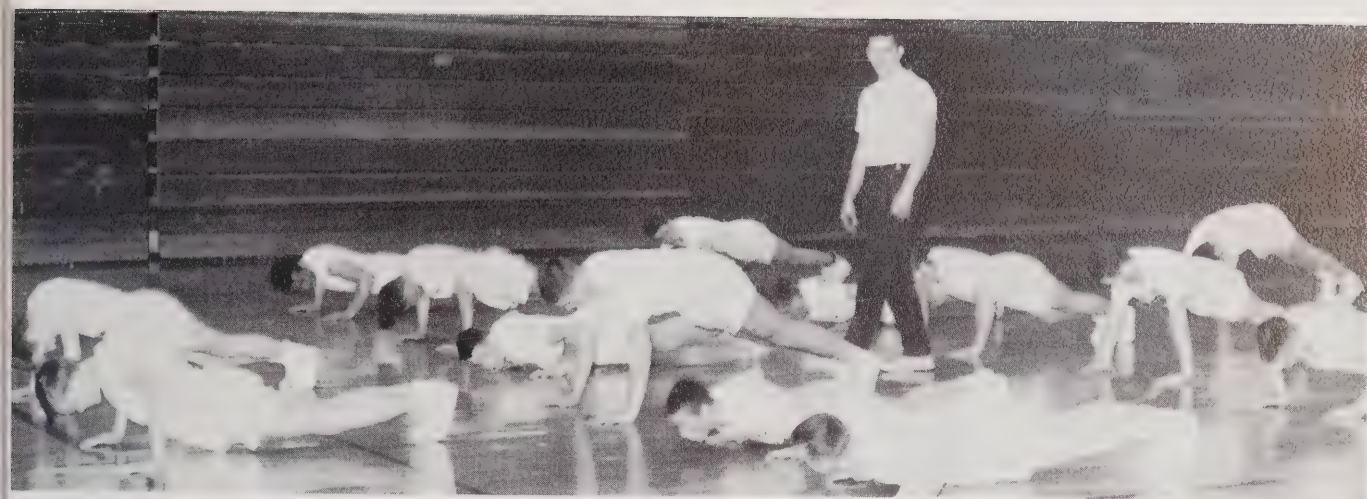

These girls wait breathlessly to see if the foul shot will decide the game.

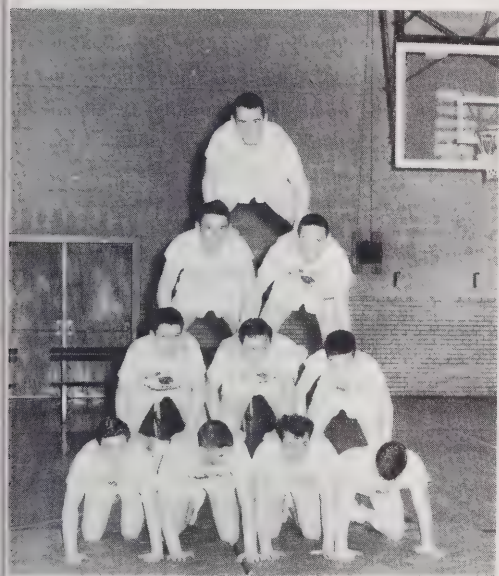

This girls' health class appears amused at their student teacher, Judy Bledsoe.

build strong, youthful bodies

Push-ups and other fitness exercises develop strength and muscular coordination.

A human pyramid is the result of steadiness and cooperation.

These boys find basketball in their physical education class an interesting, exciting game.

Coach Pittman demonstrates the position of the various types of teeth in the mouth.

Distributive Education

Trains students - - -

Ruth Nelson gives a report in D. E.

Distributive Education provides training for productive vocations.

Business Education

- - - for future jobs

Mrs. Miller's first year typing class works busily.

Mrs. Miller's commercial law class studies legal problems of today's business world.

Susan Gaskins seems puzzled in her Business English class.

Ronnie Oliver and Bill Kafer are determined to make those books balance!

This is a real bird's-eye view of shorthand.

Varsity Football

Wallace, Tommy Lamar, Albert Bell, Hunt Baxter, and Cliffie Rowe. Third row: Lynwood Smith, Bobby Forsythe, Joe Spruill, Sammy Eborn, Carl Guthrie, Sam Whitehurst, Harry Faulkner, Billy Harris, Floyd Rhue, Norman Swindell, and Skip Crayton, manager.

Skip Crayton and Randy Horner were our faithful football managers.

Through the efforts of Head Coach Bill Kluttz and Asst. Coach Will Pittman our team captured many victories.

Ronald Wallace is pursued but not stopped by two Greenville Phantoms.

Victorious is the word to use in describing the New Bern High School Varsity football team for 1960. Due to the combined efforts of Coach Bill Kluttz, Assistant Coach Will Pittman and the New Bern team the season was ended with an 8-2 record. This is Coach Bill Kluttz's first year with the Bears, and this record is one any coach can be proud of. All totaled the Bears gained 1,855 yards against the seven conference teams they played. Landing third place in the conference, the boys made an excellent showing of their playing ability.

The 1960 season produced exciting games, as New Bern beat some of the best teams in the conference. Although the Bears suffered a few injuries and made a few mistakes, the season as a whole was terrific. As everyone knows, the 1960 games showed that we have something to be proud of; that the New Bern team was composed of some of the finest boys ever to run the gridiron, as far as leadership, sportsmanship, and determination are concerned.

We of the Bruin staff would like to extend a sincere welcome to Coach Kluttz, and hope that his next seasons will be as successful as his first.

As a part of their induction into the Junior Girls' Tri-Hi-Y, Carolyn Coker, Pat Edwards, Fay Nelson, Evann Rowe, and Barbara Mallard model the breath-taking, beautiful clothes which were created exclusively for them by the old members. For the students who weren't interested in the latest fashions, the girls presented a remarkable repertoire of songs, dances, and games.

Special Events

Sweetheart Dance

RITA HOLTON

CLINTON PHILLIPS

On February 11, the annual Sweetheart Dance sponsored by the Bear Cub was held. Helen Earle Smith and Mrs. Earle Smith were in charge of refreshments. A floor show with Jimmy King as master of ceremonies featured Priscilla Jenkins, Robert Gaskins, and the "Off Beats." Rita Holton and Clinton Phillips were crowned as the 1961 Sweetheart Couple.

Junior Senior

The delightful fantasy, "The Wizard of Oz," tells of Dorothy, a young girl from Kansas, who experiences exciting adventures in the wonderful land of Oz. There she meets the little Munchkin people, the scarecrow who wants a brain, the tin woodman who wants a heart, and the cowardly lion who desires courage. Together they journey to the Emerald City, the home of the Wizard of Oz, in order to have their wishes granted.

The Junior Class selected this story as the theme of the 1960 Junior-Senior. Through imaginative scenery, the main portions of the story were constructed: the Munchkin Village, the cornfield, the haunted forest, the poppy field, and the dazzling Emerald City. Through all the scenes ran the beautiful yellow brick road.

Margaret Allen placed the finishing touch on the Tin Man as she attached its nose.

Glenda Gosnell and Mary Kate Quick busily made the flowers that decorated the Munchkin Village.

Mr. Jimmy Smith, the sponsor of the Junior Class, instructed Harry MacDonald and Kirven Mills about the construction of the framework for the Munchkin Village.

Harry MacDonald, junior class president, led the junior class in the song honoring the seniors.

The juniors and seniors looked through their programs at the Junior-Senior Banquet.

Penny Gibson, Winston Dixon, Billy Hunt, and Lenwood Smith, members of the sophomore class, acted out a part of the story "The Wizard of Oz."

The leaders of the student body, who participated in the figure, flashed colored lights as they formed a rainbow to the strains of "Somewhere over the Rainbow."

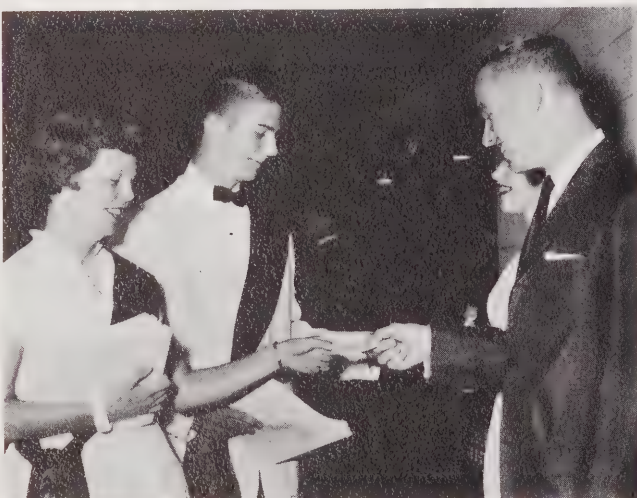

Penny Gibson busily performed her duties as she distributed favors to the guests.

Marshals

The marshals posed for a formal shot on Graduation Day. These marshals from the Junior Class were chosen because of their scholastic standing. They were Helen Earle Smith, Betty Ipock, Eloise Stilley, Gail Johnson, Glenda Gosnell, David Bennett, Helen Flythe, Jane Osgood, and Harry MacDonald.

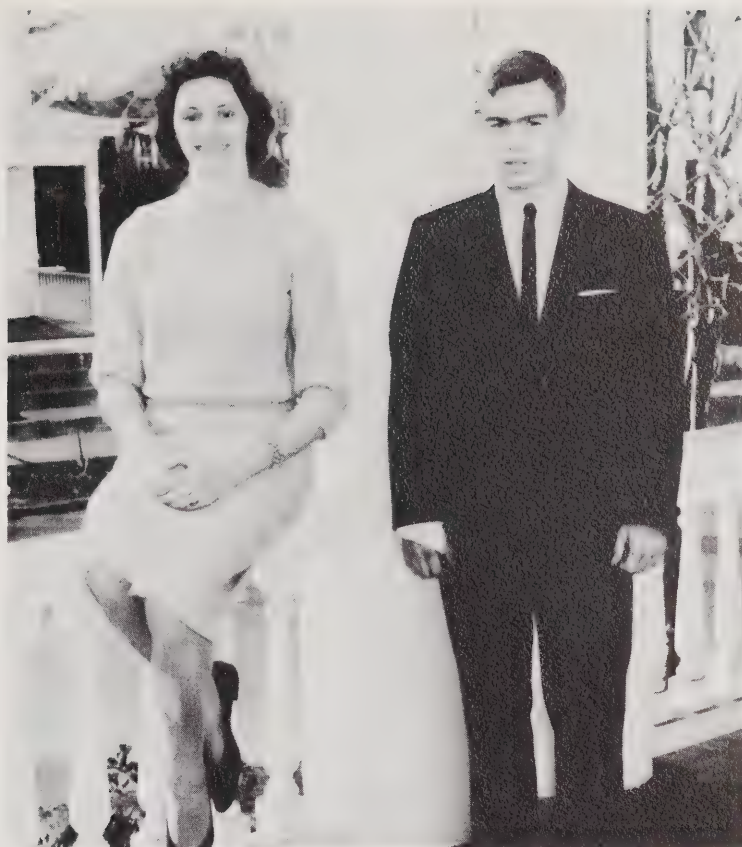

Eloise Stilley and Harry MacDonald performed their duties as they handed out programs.

Helen Earle Smith, chosen the chief marshal, led the graduating seniors into the auditorium.

Most Dependable

Most Versatile

Glenda Cosnell and Jackie Zaytoun are the most versatile seniors in New Bern High School. These pictures depict only a small portion of their varied activities.

Best Personality

Betty Ipock and Kirven Mills were acknowledged by their classmates as having the most congenial and pleasing personalities.

Best Student Leadership and Service

Nancy Whitley and Harry MacDonald were declared by their classmates as those who demonstrated best student leadership and service. They are discussing an assembly program.

Most Talented

Kay Phillips and Joe Wright received the greatest number of votes for the seniors who are most talented. Kay is well known for her voice and her art. Joe is well known for his musical abilities.

Most Intellectual

Eloise Stilley and Edward Robbins were adjudged most intellectual. They are examining the catalogues of several prospective colleges.

Jimmy King, Jackie Zaytoun, Nancy Whitley, Jane Osgood, Helen Smith, Betty Ipock, Harry MacDonald, and Edward Robbins were chosen to represent New Bern High School at Girls' and Boys' State.

Eloise Stilley demonstrated her intellectual ability when she received a scholarship to Catawba College.

Edward Robbins, Helen Smith, and Harry MacDonald brought honor to New Bern High School by achieving the distinction of being Merit Scholarship Finalists.

Outstanding, Too

The debating teams of New Bern High School have in the past brought honor to the school. The 1961 debating team—Mary Lynn Kelso, Ann Gibble, Evann Rowe, and Susan McEnally—are no exception. They have demonstrated their ability by their victory in many debates.

Jane Osgood was chosen as the D. A. R. "Good Citizen" because she demonstrated outstanding citizenship in her school and community activities.

Bonnie Fitterman served as Lieutenant Governor of Zone Four of the Junior Civitan Club. One of the ways the Junior Civitan Club serves its school is taking up tickets at basketball games.

National Citizenship Conference

The seniors from New Bern High School eagerly board the bus which will carry them to Washington, D. C.

Twenty-eight seniors from New Bern High School attended the National Citizenship Conference in Washington, D. C. on September 16-20, 1960. The theme of the 1960 Conference was "America—'A Government Of The People, By The People, For The People'." The keynote address was given by the Honorable Walter M. Bastian, President of the National Citizenship Conference. The hostesses from Tryon Palace participated in the Naturalization Program on Citizenship Day and served refreshments during the coffee hour.

Phyllis West and Mitzi Greene investigate the advantages of entering the Marine Corps.

College Day

On September 26, 1960, the juniors and seniors of New Bern High School filed into the gymnasium to investigate the advantages of various colleges and universities represented. The students asked many questions and received literature from the schools in which they were interested.

Pat Arant stopped to investigate the possibilities of Woman's College.

The representative from Watt's Hospital is showing Judy Gardner some information about a medical career.

Dr. Butler explains the advantages of East Carolina to several prospective students.

Robert Brock seems interested in Duke's entrance requirements.

Tommy Herritage and Kirven Mills are looking at the information from Wofford College.

Sheryl Crowe, Priscilla Patterson, Carolyn Coker, and Susan McEnally seem interested in Duke University.

Nancy Hare stopped to ask the nurse about Lenoir Memorial.

Homecoming Parade

Casper says that the Phantoms don't stand a ghost of a chance. The F. H. A. Club's float won first place in the Homecoming Parade.

The Junior Girls Tri-Hi-Y float won second place with their Dagwood sandwich made of Phantoms.

The Typing Club used as its slogan "I taw't I taw a Phantom," a revision of Tweetie Pie's famous words.

Popeye and his famous spinach was the inspiration for the French Club's float.

The Junior Civitan Club's float won third place by depicting the Bear's victory over the Phantoms aided by the might of Superman.

The cheerleaders got the parade off to a good start by arousing school spirit.

Reporters: Helen Bassart, Murilla Oates, and Cheryl Kwasnick.

Nonie White, Judy Stewart, Jean Lee, and Jo Ann Mumford are also reporters-at-large.

Bruin Staff

Mrs. Whitley, business adviser, and Mrs. Pace, editorial adviser, exchange congratulatory smiles after completing a day's work on the Bruin.

Associate Editor, Murilla Oates, explains new techniques on annual lay-out.

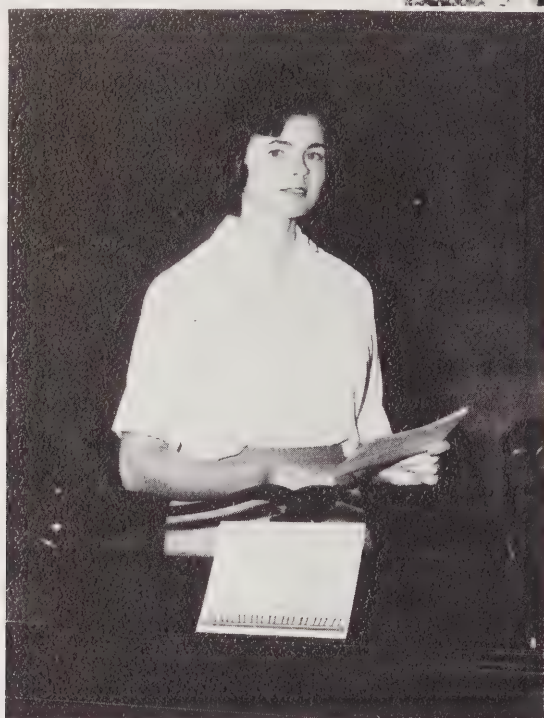

Editor-in-Chief, Nancy Whitley, pauses during proof-reading of some lay-out pages.

Bruin Staff

The club and organizations editors for this year's Bruin are Mary Lynn Kelso, Barbara Tilley, and Sharon Smith.

MARY KAY HAND
Music editor

The special events editor is Barbara Mallard.

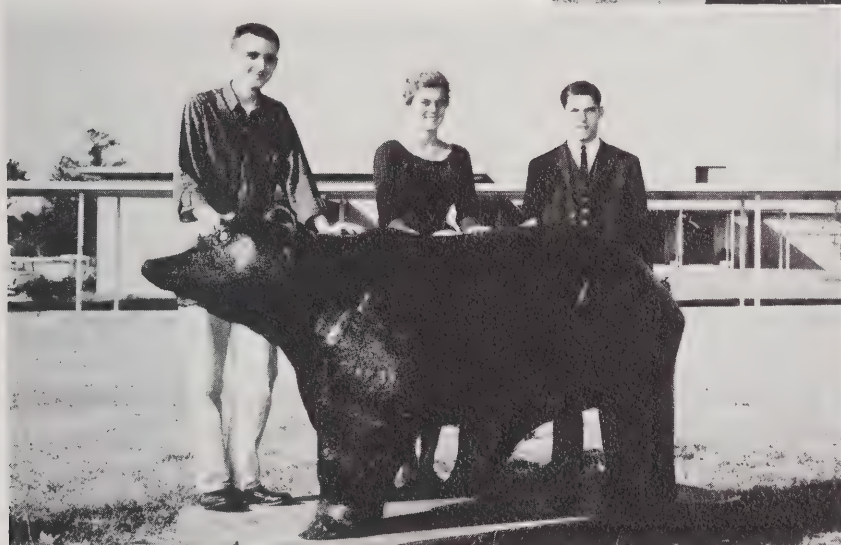

Margaret Allen and Glenda Gosnell are senior editors.

Bruin Staff

Jimmy King, Priscilla Patterson, and Cliffie Rowe are sports editors.

Standing by the NBHS bear are Nancy Sasser and Doug Young, art editors.

Our school photographers—Walter Baldree and Miss Greene.

Bruin Staff

The faculty editors of this year's Bruin are Ann Cox, Teresa Mann, and Susan Mitchell.

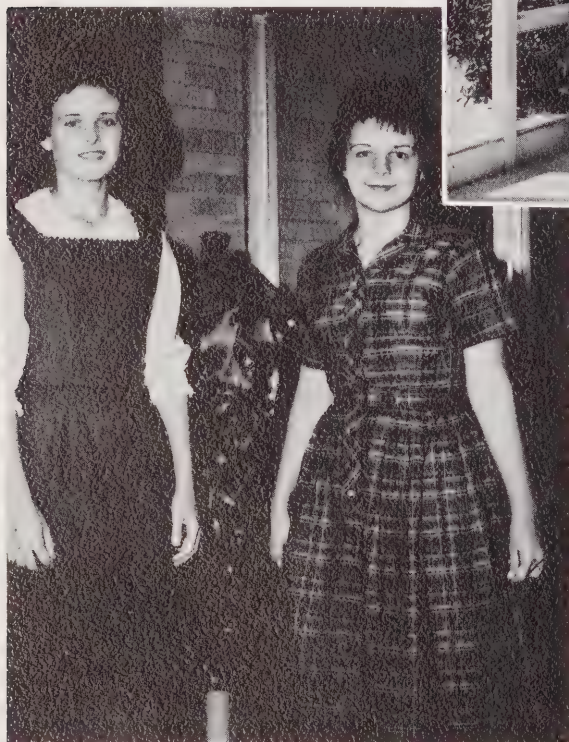

Dale Walker and Martha Thompson are the course - of - study editors.

New-comers to the annual staff are Barbara Bailey and Judy Stuart, freshman class editors.

Superintendent of New Bern City Schools

MR. HARRY J. MacDONALD

Fourteen years ago Mr. Harry MacDonald was elected Superintendent of New Bern City Schools. Since that time his contributions to the schools of New Bern illustrate the dedication which this man feels toward his responsible office.

Majoring in zoology and education, Mr. MacDonald received his Bachelor of Arts degree at Duke University in 1934, followed by his Master of Arts degree in 1940. In 1938 he became principal of New Bern High School. Elected superintendent in 1947, Mr. MacDonald had an immense job: strengthening the curriculum and status of New Bern High School and insuring education for every young person in New Bern.

Although Mr. MacDonald's is a time-consuming job, he has still contributed immeasurably to the city through civic organizations.

We are fortunate indeed to have Harry J. MacDonald as our superintendent.

"Only by plotting the future on the course of the past can we even begin to design the educational structure necessary in the years to come."

Harry J. MacDonald

Board of Education

Composed of public spirited citizens who contribute their time and energy to the responsible job of providing New Bern with an efficient school system, the Board of Education meets the second Tuesday of every month.

Their unselfish service to us and their interest in us have helped us to have a school of which we can be very proud. Whatever success we may have in an adult world may be shared with these citizens who have helped us to have the opportunity to develop our abilities.

Principal

When Mr. Allen said, "the students and their attitudes; the teacher's influence and personality; the learning process with all its sweat and toil; the joy and emotions of high spirited youth; all reflect a mode of thinking that sets us apart. There is much to remember," he presented much of his philosophy and of his personality in these words.

MR. JIMMY W. ALLEN

During his first year at New Bern High School, Mr. Allen has worked unceasingly to provide an atmosphere conducive to learning. New Bern is indeed fortunate to have a man, dedicated to education, J. W. Allen.

Mrs. Phyllis Sullivan, who came in January as bookkeeper for the school, holds an enviable position, being the only person who counts "all" the money handled through the school office.

Mrs. Ida J. McKinnon, guidance director for New Bern High School, works with the students as they make their selections of colleges and vocations.

Mrs. W. W. Thomas, secretary to the principal, supervises office activities and school correspondence. As this picture shows, she's always expecting "that" telephone to ring.

Mrs. Robert Lewis is the school bookkeeper, the person who keeps track of all the money handled through the school and makes out the receipts and handles the business end of the money department.

Mr. Leon Wade and Mr. Luther Eastwood are "caught" by our roving camera. These two men help keep New Bern High School in spotless condition and are always ready with a cheerful smile or word.

Mrs. Roy Tucker is our efficient dietician and our friend. Not only are the members of the staff the lucky ones, everyone else in school gets to enjoy her delicious lunches and snacks.

Letha Dixon, our housekeeper is a real friend with the cleaning agents, but as far as the students are concerned, she's everybody's friend.

Anna Mae Midyette, a vital member of our maintenance staff, works quietly and effortlessly around the school.

One of the jobs that carries the most responsibility of any job in the school is that of the transportation of students to and from their homes. Pictured below are our bus drivers: Faye Hargett, Doug Hadder, Cookie Wilson, James Tripp, Robert Truitt, Ikey Holton, Lester Butts, Glen Edwards, John Toner, George Norris, Frankie Brown, Linda Gaskins, Bonnie Butts, Barbara Opphile, Ruth Treshan, Joan Sutton, Clinton Phillips, Jack Brown.

The Bear stands as a silent symbol of New Bern High School.

The cafeteria satisfies the hunger of the throngs of students during the lunch periods.

The library satisfies the intellectual hunger of the student in the search for knowledge.

WHIT Radio, "first in New Bern since 1942," takes pride in our 18 years of association with the students and faculty of New Bern High School. Starting with our first year of pioneering radio in this area in 1942 we have consistently had one or more of you kids on our staff, many having gone on to distinguish themselves in the broadcasting industry.

Thanks to you guys and gals we continue to be New Bern's in the know, on the go radio station.
